Thanks to D.L. Klauck, Blair H. Allen, Al Gershen, Lew Thomas, Karen Robinson, Lionell Glaze, Kathy Setian, Bill Mohr, Anna Banana, Dadaland, Jon Zatkan, Dahlia Zatkan, Fernando Barreiro, Robin Roth, Geoffrey Cook, Howard Hack, Lionel Biron, Andy Steinhauer, Susie Steinhauer, Lyle Workman, Jay Goldstein—for all sorts of physical and aesthetic help; and special thanks to Tim Mancusi for the INTERMEDIA logo.

Subscriptions to INTERMEDIA are $7.50 for four issues (not a calendar year), $3.00 additional for institutions, $3.00 additional to foreign addresses (for surface mail postage).

At the present time we cannot accept any new manuscripts.

This issue was supported, in part, by a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency; and from the Coordinating Council of Literary Magazines, NY, which receives part of its funds from the NEA. Some of the typesetting for this issue was produced at New-Comp-Graphics Center, Venice, CA, which is funded, in part, by a grant from the NEA.

Additional Typesetting: Good Times Grafix, San Francisco
Printing: Alonzo Printing, South San Francisco

On pages 87-90 we have reprinted Richard Kostelanetz's NYSCA AGAIN, an investigation into the funding practices of that agency. Although we don't agree with Kostelanetz's tone, or the language in this article, we do support his investigation of the process of the funding of art and literary organizations and publications, and the machinations therein. A photocopy of this article was sent to Richard A. Mayer, Executive Director of the New York State Council on the Arts, with the offer of equal space in which to comment on Kostelanetz's allegations. Mayer's response was: "The Council sees no reason to respond to the comments he has made in his article."
